

PERCULATIONS.

Winter has about disappeared again. The March winds seem to be blowing.

Chattanooga's Irish Relief Fund has reached $625.

The boys are all absorbed now in the amusement of rolling hoops. Morristown is being canvassed for the relief of the Irish sufferers.

The front of McTeer's clothing store is receiving a new coating of paint.

Already the mails begin to be heavily freighted with Valentines. Saturday is the day.

Fifteen Tennessee stables are to be represented at the spring meeting of the Chicago Jockey Club.

The Wagon Car Works in Chattanooga, which were destroyed by fire not long since, are being rapidly rebuilt.

A white male child, apparently prematurely born, was found in a Chattanooga sewer last Tuesday. The parents of the child are unknown.

The spring trade begins to open up quite lively, with bright prospects of a continuation, and even an improvement of the good times.

They say there is no advance on Oliver Chilled Pows. The farmers ought to lay in their supply before the advance, which is sure to come. Woodruff & Co. keep a large stock.

Farmers, Attention! We will have 25 car loads of Land Plaster on hand and for sale. Call early before the supply is exhausted. W. W. Woodruff & Co.

The name of the Mossy Creek Baptist College, as we learn, is to be changed to "Carson College," in honor of Hon. J. H. Carson, of Jefferson county. A merited tribute to a worthy citizen.

Nashville Banner: Henry Brown was frozen to death in Warren county a day or two ago. He went to a distillery on a mountain, where he became intoxicated, and starting home late in the evening, fell from his horse and was found dead the next morning.

We understand the Jonesboro Union Flag is soon to be moved to Rogersville, where its publisher, Mr. John S. Hayes, will continue it as a staunch Republican paper, and Mr. John W. Brown, a worthy and talented young lawyer of Rogersville, will be editor.

Emigrant Agent Wm. Kerr, had another good party of emigrants aboard yesterday's train. Among the number who were furnished first class tickets by him, we noticed Mr. C. H. Smith and wife, of Grapeland, going on a visit to friends at Sherman, Texas; and Mr. Howard Wiley, of Coal Creek, taking a trip West.

Morristown Gazette: We learn that our young friend, Frank B. Mitchell, of this city, has been fortunate in securing a situation in D. B. Lovenman's New Orleans store at Knoxville. Frank is a good, industrious boy, and we doubt not will be as pleasant and popular a salesman there as he was here. He will be glad to see his Morristown friends when they visit Knoxville.

While Mrs. Lay, of Nashville, was sitting in the rear porch of her residence last Sunday with her infant daughter, aged 14 months, a random snow ball struck the latter in the right temple and rendered her unconscious. She soon recovered and no bad effects were seen until at night, when she began to have spasms and finally, in one of them, died.

Maryville Democrat: "A freight boom" has been in progress on the Knoxville and Augusta Railroad for the past four weeks, the people of the county shipping stock, grain, etc., to Knoxville, Atlanta, and other points South and East. At no time since the road was put into operation has the freight business been as large as it has been for the past three months.

Mr. E. A. Jett, with the popular grocery house of Capt. A. Gaines, has left for our inspection and testing, some very fine samples of tobacco. A twist of "Blind Billy," very fine, a sample of the "Natural Leaf" plug which is said to almost equal Gravelly's and is much cheaper; also a sack of Jamison & Helm's German-town smoking, excellent. Users of the weed will do well to examine Gaines' stock.

New Duty at Chattanooga.

The first issue of the News Chronicle, a new afternoon paper published at Chattanooga by the News-Chronicle Printing Company, has reached our table. It is a five column to the page, paper, neatly printed, and starts out as though it would make a live and away sheet. Its motto seems to be fearless and independent in all things. We welcome the new venture into the field of journalism.

Notes About the Courts.

The Arbitration Court, for the East Tennessee Division, consisting of the Hon. J. B. Cooke, of Chattanooga; H. H. Ingersoll, of Knoxville, and W. V. Deaderick, of Sullivan county, adjourned since the 1st of December, with the exception of Christmas week, making about two months in all. During that time the Court put in good work, and their deliberations were characterized by ability and fairness. They heard nearly 100 cases, and rendered opinions in some 70 odd. This leaves 280 cases yet standing on the docket of the Supreme Court at this place. The efficient and obliging Supreme Court Clerk, Mr. J. F. Deaderick, has our thanks for favors shown during the sitting of the Court.

In the Circuit Court yesterday a verdict was rendered in the case of J. H. Crockett vs. the Frankland Fire Insurance Company, an organization which went down with the crash of the Commercial Bank. The case was taken up Monday, and concluded Tuesday evening. The plaintiff sued for $2,500, an insurance policy which he held on a house situated on the Clinton Pike, which was burned in 1875. The jury gave him a verdict for $2,000 without interest.

This same court was engaged all day yesterday on the case of A. W. Rose, administrator, etc., vs. the E. T. V. & G. R. Co., a company, which was taken up Tuesday evening. This is a suit for $10,000 damages, for the killing of a colored boy, Dan'l. Henderson, who was run over by the switch engine, at Crozier street crossing in May, 1876. Judge George Brown represents the road, and H. R. Gibson and W. F. Yardley the plaintiff. The argument is yet being heard. The case was tried before in the same Court, and a verdict for $1,000 rendered, but it was reversed and sent back by the Supreme Court.

In the Criminal Court, the jury in the case of Frank Taylor, charged with stealing hardware from W. W. Woodruff & Co., heard Tuesday, failed to agree, and a mistrial was entered. Jim Love, a Knoxville youth, was tried yesterday for the larceny of a coat and vest from J. L. Brock, and the case was given to the jury at the adjournment of Court.

Memorial Society Entertainment.

The Ladies' Memorial Society, colored, of this city propose to give another of their monthly entertainments to-night, at the colored Old Fellow's Hall. We are requested to say that those parties who have been accustomed to raising disturbances at former entertainments will not be admitted.

A Down-Town Merchant.

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby worse, and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to stand to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and, although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

Two Organs.

Regulate first the stomach, second the liver; especially the first, so as to perform their functions perfectly and you will remove at least nineteen-twentieths of all the ills that mankind is heir to, in this or any other climate. Hop Bitters is the only thing that will give perfectly healthy, natural action to these two organs.

Our Daily Food.

Adaptation prevails in our daily food. Food is a most important necessity, and it should be wholesome and nutritious. If all articles that are used were as pure and healthful as Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, we should escape many of the ills of life.
